THANKSGIVING AT THE WHITE HOUSE

President Attends Pan-American Mass in Morning.

CARDINAL GIBBONS IS PRESENT

Large Congregation Hears Sermon on Peace — Forty-Pound Turkey Graces Board at Presidential Table.

Washington, Dec. 1. — President Taft, with the highest officials of the executive, judicial and legislative branches of the government and the diplomatic representatives from all of the American republic, attended the third pan-American Thanksgiving mass at St. Patrick's church.

Cardinal Gibbons, who assisted in the mass, was seated within the sanctuary upon a scarlet throne. The uniforms of the diplomatic officers, of the president's naval and military aides, and the vestments of the church dignitaries and the decorations within the church gave a brilliant coloring to the scene. Each pew assigned to the members of a foreign legation was decorated with a flag of that republic. The pillars in the church were all covered with the national colors of all the American republics.

Before the appearance of the president the seats in the church were crowded. Several hundred persons were admitted at the last minute and allowed to stand through the service. Immediately after the president had taken his seat the procession of altar boys and priests, marching in advance of Cirdinal Gibbons, came from the rectory up the main aisle of the church to the sanctuary.

The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. Patrick J. Donohue, D. D., Bishop of West Virginia. He spoke upon peace, of the blessings of peace given to this country and to all of the American republics, and the need of work to secure universal peace, asking all good men to lend aid in securing the ratification of the arbitration treaties which are now before the senate.

After the service President Taft returned with Mrs. Taft to the White House. Most of his Thanksgiving day the president spent directly with his family. He put in some time at work and had half an hour's talk with Justice Lurton of the supreme court. The president's family had their Thanksgiving dinner in the evening, when the White House board was graced with the remarkable forty-pound turkey sent from the Horace Vose farm in Rhode Island.

MRS. PATTERSON'S FUTURE

Acquitted Woman Uncertain As to What She Will Do.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 1.—Mrs. Gertrude Gibson Patterson, who was acquitted of the murder of her husband, is with her parents, who came from Sandoval, Ill., for the trial. Of her plans she had little to say.

"I dont know myself," she replied in answer to a question. "My father is anxious to take me back to Sandoval at once, but I can't leave Denver for a few days at least, as I must attend to some business matters.

"The stage? No vaudeville positively, not that—I think that would be cheapening and degrading, but if I could get a part—even a tiny little part—in a really first-class company, I think I should like it. But all that's most indefinite. Truly, I don't know what I am going to do."

INSANE RECORDS AID POOLE

Court Admits Evidence Showing Defendant Twice in Hospital.

Lafayette, Ind., Dec. 1.—In the Poole murder trial the court admitted in evidence records showing that the defendant had twice been an inmate of the state insane hospital. Witnesses testified to many eccentric actions of the accused man.

It was shown that he was afflicted with a homicide mania which, when checked by a sharp word or cry, would cause him to burst into tears. It is said Poole will not go on the witness stand. His daughter Grace will be his principal witness.

"King of Maple Island," Muskegon River, Discharges Mortgage.

Muskegon, Mich., Dec. 1.—Probably a unique Thanksgiving gift made in Muskegon county was that of John Bean, "King of Maple Island," who has filed the discharge of a mortgage aggregating $1,000 which he has held ever since 1896 on a piece of property owned by his former wife, Mrs. Marian Bean.

Bean and his wife have been divorced fifteen years, but have lived on different farms on the island, which is inhabited entirely by descendants of "King Bean," who owns the entire island in Muskegon river.

CHAMPION WRESTLER DIES HERE AT 82- FUNERAL SATURDAY

On Wednesday morning occurred the death of Jacob Henry Martin on Harriet street, this city. He died of dropsy at the advanced age of 80, having been born in 1831 in New York state. He was cared for in his last illness by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Martin.

Mr. Martin was the son of Byard Martin who came to Michigan and owned a farm south of the city, afterwards coming into Ypsilanti and living in what is now the Kief house on South Huron street. The son was twenty-one years old when he came to Ypsilanti. Here he was for fifteen years a butcher. Mr. Martin was well knows as a wrestler in his younger days, having claimed at one time the world's record for heavy weight wrestling. He has been seen in an exhibition at the old Ypsilanti Opera house in this city.

Mr. Martin is survived by a wife, a son, J. H. Martin, and two daughters, Mrs. A. R. Smith of West Branch and Mrs. C. E. DeClements of Detroit. The funeral will be held on Saturday at two o'clock at the late residence on Harriet street with interment at Highland cemetery.

ESTABROOK FUNERAL HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Mrs. Sarah L. Estabrook, wife of Nelson Estabrook of Delhi, who is known to many Ypsilantians, died Tuesday night after an illness of about a year. Her husband and one daughter, Miss Mabel, survive her. The funeral of Mrs. Estabrook occurred this afternoon.

UNDERWEAR FACTORY IS SURELY SOLD

The Ypsilanti Industrial Association has to its credit the closing of a deal with the Oak Knitting Company of Syracuse, New York, through the Union Trust company of Detroit, whereby the former Ypsilanti Underwear factory will shortly be ready for the resumption of this once thriving business.

The deal has been closed and the deeds turned over in Detroit. The company states that they cannot tell how long it will be before the factory will be in running order and labor hired, as they will first need to determine the exact condition of the plant.

The Oak Knitting company is a very strong concern and experienced manufacturers of underwear. They have a big plant in Syracuse and a smaller one in Arcade, New York. A. G. Belasco, the vice-president and general manager, has been in Ypsilanti and the Ypsilanti Industrial association has become acquainted with him and his aims as regards the business. He left Thursday evening for Toledo after a conference with some of the business men in Ypsilanti. The local manager will be J. B. Bringlow, and with him will be associated W. S. Warren. Mr. Bringlow has rented the Sweet house on Michigan street, and Mr. Warren is looking for a house so that he may bring his family to the city.

The fact that the Oak Knitting Company has made a thorough success of its two New York factories and that it is headed by a man of such unimpeachable standing as its president, C. E. Crouse, warrants the assumption that the Ypsilanti plant will be another unqualified success.

The articles which the company has been manufacturing are of a somewhat cheaper grade than those which the original underwear factory in Ypsilanti put out. However, after the men had looked over the Ypsilanti plant, they expressed themselves in favor of resurrecting the old standard, and it is to be hoped they will, for it was this higher standard which extensive advertising and superior output made famous throughout the country. It is even possible that the old slogan, "full fashion underwear," may again be employed.

In the old days there were 250 women and girls at work in the factory, and there will probably be as many when operations begin in the new factory.

It is felt that the city has been ably represented in this deal by the Ypsilanti Industrial association which, after J. B. Colvan had brought them into communication with the Oak Knitting Company, has devoted much time to the fostering of the enterprise and the securing of the most advantageous terms possible for the city.

W. F. Whittaker, Broadway and 143d St., New York City, is offering a very handsome White Iceland Fox fur set which will be sent anywnere prepaid for $15.00, also a beautiful Manchurian Lynx set at $10.00. Mr. Whittaker invites every lady reader of this paper to write for full particulars and photos of these pretty fur sets. Write today —a postal will do. 1129

FALL OF GRAND STAND

Sixty Persons Injured, Several of Them Fatally.

Accident Occurs in Jackson, Miss., Just Previous to Big Football Game.

Jackson, Miss., Dec. 1.—At least sixty persons were injured, several fatally, when a grand stand collapsed here, throwing 2,000 persons to the ground and burying many under the debris.

The accident just preceded the calling of play in the University of Mississippi-Agricultural college football game. Many women and children are among the injured. The stand crashed without warning.

Secretary of State J. N. Power sustained severe wrenches of the back and ugly bruises and Lieutenant Governor Mansip was bruised and cut about the head.

Miss Mollie Burch, secretary to the chancellor of Mississippi college, was the worst sufferer among the women. She is bruised severely and it is feared sustained internal injuries.

Many of those hurt were socially prominent. A preliminary investigation shows no cause for the collapse of the stand.

CRISIS OVER PERSIA

Fear Expressed that It Will Disturb Relations of Russia and England.

London, Dec. 1.—The crisis in Persia for the moment displaces interest in other foreign crises and is creating among other things a fear of the disturbance of the agreement of 1907, which harmonized the long standing and somewhat dangerous clash of interests of Russia and Great Britain and which was consequently received with general relief in this country.

This fear overshadows to a great extent the question of Persia's independence, which is probably much more seriously menaced. The latter, however, is not overlooked and the radical press points out that if the latest Russian ultimatum is complied with Great Britain will be helping to compass the ruin of Persia's freedom. A third danger is the coterminous frontier of Russia and England.

CLUB WOMEN JOIN FOR A GOOD SPEECH

The Ypsilanti Woman's club invited the Ypsilanti Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Ypsilanti Study club, the Ladies' Literary club and the Catholic Study club to be their guests on Wednesday afternoon at the Masonic Temple and listen to an address on "Michigan" by Mrs. Marie Ferry of Lansing. Louis James sang at the beginning of the afternoon and was encored. Then the women visited with one another while awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Ferry, whose train was late.

The subject, "Michigan," was a very happily chosen one, and it is at present engaging a portion of the time of most of the literary clubs of the city and particularly is it conspicuous on the programs of the D. A. R. Mrs. Ferry, upon being presented to the company by Mrs. Gertrude rwin, the president of the Woman's club, said she deplored the fact that Michigan people cared so little for the landmarks of their state. If there were a united effort on the part of the women of the state to preserve from demolition the many spots and buildings of interest to be found within the state, she was confident everything to be desired could be accomplished. As a concrete instance, Mrs. Ferry mentioned the old mill on the campus of the Michigan Agricultural college at Lansing, which has the distinction of being the first agricultural building erected in the United States. Yet on a campus of 640 acres there seems to be no other place for a new building to stand save on the site of this ancient structure.

The speaker urged all women to join the state historical society. This state has a unique history, she said. There has been a time when it had both a governor and king, the latter being a Morman king living on Beaver Island. She spoke of the old boundary dispute, when Michigan, with commendable zeal, desired to take in Toledo. Mrs. Ferry stated that her own ambition was to have in Lansing a room fitted up in the true Colonial style so that those days might be the more easily recalled in the present day, when families have their gathering around registers and radiators instead of the big broad fire-places.

Pineapple ice and cake were served by the Woman's club at the conclusion of Mrs. Ferry's speech.

EXPRESS COMPANY IS SUED

Michigan Seeks to Force American to Carry Five Pounds for 25 Cents.

Lansing, Mich., Dec 1. — Attorney General Kuhn stated that he had begun suit to compel the American Express company to comply with the law passed by the legislature of 1911, which requires express companies to carry packages, not exceeding five pounds in weight and $10 in value, for 25 cents.

The express company has refused to grant the rate, claiming that it is confiscatory. An order was issued requiring the express company to show cause why a writ of mandamus should not be issued compelling it to obey the law.

DEMOCRATS TO HOLD FIRST BIG MEETING TONIGHT

Arrangements have been made by a number of the active democrats of the city and vicinity for a big fish dinner to be served at the Masonic Temple this evening. The meeting will be addressed by Judge Tucker of Mt. Clemens and Mr. Anketell and Aldrich Blake of Detroit. It is expected that there will be about one hundred guests.

LOCAL MILLINERS FILE PETITION TO BECOME AMERICAN CITIZENS

The Misses F. and Mary J. Simpson of this city went to the county clerk's office in Ann Arbor this week and petitioned to become American citizens.

They, like so many others who had been born outside of the United States, believed themselves citizens, but found that their father had only taken out his first paper, that is made a declaration, but had never taken out his second papers. As they had exercised the functions of American citizens in good faith, having voted at school elections, they made their petition under the amended act of June 25th, 1910. There are probably more than 500 of such cases in Washtenaw county, where parties are voting in good faith, but are not entitled to, because of not being citizens.

Mr. Rockefeller has issued a statement denying the charges, but Mr. Gates has so far remained silent.

RICH CEREMONY IN THE VATICAN

Newly Elevated Cardinals Receive Their Red Hats.

BRILLIANT CHURCH SPECTACLE

Three Americans Among High Churchmen Elevated to Sacred College in Most Imposing Services.

Rome, Dec. 1.—St. Peter's Square by 9 a. m. was filled by a vast crowd waiting for the opening of the bronze doors of the beatification hall. There were nuns and monks and students of foreign colleges and hosts of others. Americans and English students in their black cassocks, Germans in red, Scots in purple, a typical Roman crowd, a familiar sight at papal functions.

The new and old cardinals assembled in the Sistine chapel, where, in the presence of the pope, the sacred college took the oath of allegiance prescribed by the apostolic constitution, to which is now added the oath not to veto the election of a cardinal.

During the conclave there was an hour's private ceremony, after which the pope entered the room and donned his mitre of white satin, richly adorned with gold, and heavily embroidered cope of gold cloth. The pope was then seated in the gestatoriad chair, in which he was borne shoulder high to the hall, where 6,000 persons silently, almost breathlessly, awaited his coming.

The cortege was one of the most imposing the world has ever seen. First came the red brocaded attendants and chamberlains and then a long row of monks and friars in white, black and brown, then procurators of religious orders, Dominicans, Capuchins, Agostinians, redemptors and others, consistorial advocates in black and red gowns edged with ermine, and four mace bearers in black silk. There was a prelate carrying a cushion upon which was the pope's mitre, a cross bearer and candle bearers and then the sacred college of cardinals, walking in twos, each followed by a train bearer in purple and a gentleman in waiting in black velvet with a gilt sword.

There were more nobles and then came the pope. On each side of his chair were bearers of ostrich feather flabelli, while clerical dignitaries surrounded.

After the pope had taken his seat on the throne the cardinals advanced separately for the act of "obedience," and, kneeling upon the steps of the throne, which were covered with flaming robes, each kissed the papal ring. Then the cardinals sat upon benches while the master of ceremonies pronounced the Latin formula "accedat."

Two cardinal deans and four mace bearers proceeded to the Sistine chapel and returned with the new cardinals.

The professed cardinals arose and each new cardinal went toward the throne and genuflected three times, after which he kissed the papal foot and hand. Finally accolades were exchanged with the pope, his holiness kissing each cheek of each of the new cardinals. The newly elevated cardinals then exchanged accolades with the professed cardinals and returned to the throne, where they received their red hats.

When each was hatted and had received his ring the pope embraced all of the cardinals and then blessed the multitude.

THEATER PANIC AVERTED

Gallery God Yells "Fire" When He Hears Distant Gong.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 1.—Only the reassuring smile and clever acting of Miss Henrietta Crossman in the third and last act of "The Real Thing" prevented a stampede in the Academy of Music when a gallery god yelled "fire" after hearing a distant gong sound an alarm.

Instantly men, women and children in the gallery arose and made a dash for the exits. Theater employes were prompt to act and the orchestra instantly plunged into a lively strain.

The actors anod actresses took up the threads of the act where they were interrupted and the audience instantly turned from stampede into laughter. The alarm was caused by a slight blaze in a hotel a block from the theater.

THE "COME" AND "REMAIN" CAMPAIGN.

It is remarkable how extensively municipalities are using newspaper advertising in promoting their growth. They are recognizing that, when you have anything in which you wish to interest others, the way to reach them is to advertise it. Municipalities have selfish community interests to promote. The more people they can persuade to "come" and "remain," the more money do they transfer from the treasury of some other community to the treasury of their own. And every added citizen who invests his accumulations and earnings in "our town" helps share the expenses of administering our affairs and commensurately reduces the proportion to be borne by others. It is a plain business proposition.

We are naturally interested in noting how progressive communities are using "printers' ink" to further their cause. Boards of trade clear across the continent are inviting people to send for booklets describing the advantages of their town. Larger areas are doing likewise. A few states are cooperating with the railroads in persuading people to "come and remain." An offensive and defensive alliance to meet the compensation of other enterprising communities is rendered necessary. Canada, by judicious newspaper advertising, induced thousands of Americans to leave their native or adopted states and adopt a foreign country as their permanent home. The south takes advantage of the fact of thousands of tourists within her domain during the winter months and, by advertising the advantages of "Dixie" as a home place, persuades many to remain.

Michigan might well follow this example and take advantage of the presence of her thousands of summer tourists. The Detroit Times is, in the absence of any systematic attention by the state to hold its own citizens at home, in a very commendable way offering substantial cash prizes to Michigan editors for writing and publishing the best editorial on "Remain in Michigan." By this means, no doubt, a large amount of helpful advertising of the state's advantages will be brought home to the citizens of Michigan and many will be saved from the folly of selling out and going elsewhere. Michigan already prides itself in competition with Canada and its sister states in holding its own.

We noted in this column not long since how the city of Memphis, Tenn., has added during the past year "58 new manufacturing enterprises, 75 jobbers and 641 new industrial mercantile firms and corporations;" and this was accomplished in the main by the use of $20,000 in newspaper advertising. We note in the last issue of Leslie's Weekly a two-column full length of page ad of this enterprising city, from which we clip the following merely to illustrate what Memphis sees fit to pay newspapers to emphasize:

An Ideal Residence City.

"Memphis has the commission form of municipal government—has the largest proportionate park area and the finest roadways and boulevards of any American city—has most excellent schools, greatest artesian water system in the world, and the most perfect of sewage systems—has a fine equable climate and the best health record among Southern cities.

"These factors assist materially in making labor conditions ideal in Memphis—for workmen do their best work when they live in pleasant, healthful and educative surroundings."

Mother Cannot Bequeath Child.

That a mother cannot dispose of her child by will is the ruling of the New York supreme court here. "It is with great reluctance that we reach this decision," the court says, in awarding to Leopold Meyer the custody of his little daughter, who the mother had willed should go to the wealthy grandparents. "A father's right to the possession of a child," the court explains, "is equal to the mother's, and on her death it becomes absolute. These provisions of law override the consideration that the child is well cared for by its grandparents, and that its future is well provided for."

"Best on Earth."

This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure." Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. No not accept any substitute Weinmann-Matthews Co.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., Dec. 1.—Two cars met on an open switch just outside of Detroit. Mrs. Tart of Marine City was badly hurt about the head, and Editor Marvin, of the Utica Sentinel, was badly bruised.

A Port Huron local ran into an express car standing on Trombley's switch. The front end of the passenger car was badly stove in. The crew of the express car were standing on the ground. The motorman of the passenger also escaped injury.

The accident was caused by the failure of a spring switch to work properly. The passenger car was crowded. Only the low rate of speed at which the car was traveling prevented a slaughter. The scene of the wreck was soon cleared by D. U. R. employes.

Dexter, Dec. 1.—At a special election held here 128 voters cast their ballots in favor of allowing the Ann Arbor Gas Company to pipe gas to this village. The vote was unanimous though the question had raised a great deal of controversy. The gas company is to bear all the expense of getting the gas here.

GOVERNMENT GETS TITLE TO BEAL PROPERTY NEAR ANN ARBOR POSTOFFICE

Ann Arbor, Dec. 1—Title to the Beal property south of the postoffice on Main street has passed to the United States government. The razing of the old building on the property will begin as soon as possible and will be taken care of by Mr. Beal. The property is purchased simply for the purpose of providing a proper space for fire protection south of the postoffice, the postal regulations requiring more clear space than now exists. The razing of the old building will also give room for a small park south of the postoffice which will add greatly to the appearance of the federal building.

CLEARY MEN PLAY WELL BUT LOSE- H. S. ALUMNI WIN

The football game between the Cleary Business College and the St. Thomas Catholic school of Ann Arbor on Reinhart's field Thanksgiving Day resulted in a score of 12 to 5 in favor of the visitors. The Cleary Business College team have made an excellent showing considering the material at hand during the past season. Much credit is due Coach Hunt for the part he has taken in working the team up to such a high standard. The teams were handicapped in the fore part of the season in securing outside games. They were too heavy for high schools and not heavy enough for college teams but the season taken all together has been a successful one.

The game between the Ypsilanti high school boys and an alumni team on the same day resulted in a score of 5 to 0 in favor of the alumni.

Watch Your Kidneys.

Their action controls your health. Read what Foley Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor. Mrs. W. H. Taylor, Ann Arbor, Mich., says, "I had a case of kidney trouble that caused me much worry and pain. I was troubled with severe backache and shooting pains in the sides and at times I felt as tired early in the morning as if I had done a hard day's work. Foley Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and I began taking them. After a short time I felt entirely relieved of the backache, the side pains left me and I have never experienced that tired feeling in the morning or any other time. Foley Kidney Pills cured me and I shall always recommend them highly." Weinmann-Matthews Co.

WIDE AWAKE AT SIXTY EIGHT

Fifty years ago today the subject of this sketch, Rep. H. C. Rankin, spent his 18th birthday wielding a pick and shovel, helping to construct a fort overlooking the Ohio and commanding the approach to Louisville.

Few men on their 68th birthday have the vigor of man in his prime, the elastic step and erect form, the push, persistency and persuasiveness, the gift of speech, the power to win friends and bind them to him as Washtenaw's representative to the legislature.

He is patriotic in the extreme; in his love of country and its possibilities a radical. He believes in the initiative, the referendum and the recall because he can trust the intelligence and patriotism of the whole people.

It is admitted by all conversant with the situation that no man voiced the sentiment of his district more than he, and he was outspoken on every question last winter.

No other first termer secured the attention, friendship and votes of the old timers to the measures they espoused as he.

Certainly none were as active. He fought a battle royal for the Old Soldier, for the State Normal College and for other big measures, for some which passed the House by decisive vote but fell down in the Senate.

The gentleman from Washtenaw brought credit to his intelligent constituency.

What He Saved.

Pathetic as well as amusing is the valedictory of a western editor: "With grateful acknowledgment to my friends and benediction upon the profession, I take my hat—the savings of 17 years in the newspaper field—and retire."

Natural Indignation.

Thief (who has snatched a lady's bag)—"Two transfers, a powder puff, a recipe fer headwash, and a sample o' silk! An I ran two miles wid it! I'm agin votes fer women!"—Puck.

Puts Paris Green in Well.

Leonidas, Mich., Dec. 1.—While C. E. Hutchins and family were at a social some fiend "doped" his well with paris green. The miscreant was probably quite nervous as he scattered a goodly supply of the poison on the pump and also left a quantity in the cup. A thorough investigation will be made.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Ypsilanti Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This Ypsilanti citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of lasting benefit.

The facts are now confirmed.

Such testimony is complete—the vidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Thomas Barnum, 23 Water St., Ypsilanti, Mich., says: "A heavy cold which settled on my kidneys affected hem and my back became so painful hat I could not stoop or lift. I neglected to treat the trouble and as a result, it became serious. When I found how bad my case really was, I began using medicine, but then it was too late and I got only temporary relief. It was difficult for me to sit down and just as hard to get up, owing to sharp twinges through my loins. The secretions from my kidneys were also unnatural. Finally I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Weinmann–Matthews Co.'s Drug Store, and the first few doses benefited me. By the time I had finished the contents of one box, my pains and aches had all disappeared and I felt like a different person. I think that I am justified in recommending them." (Statement given in 1906).

Time is the Test.

Mrs. Barnum was interviewed on September 20, 1911, and she added to the above: "I cheerfully confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills, for they made a permanent cure in my case. I have had no further need of a kidney medicine since 1906."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster–Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
